Spotlight on new announcer, Jessie G, Sundays 9am-12pm

Hello, my name is Jess though I go by Jessie G on air

I love learning new things as I value learning for life. My hobbies include crocheting, video games and adventures with friends. I'm currently in my final year of a Bachelor of Business, majoring in Digital Futures. Business has always been an interest of mine since high school along with technology. My degree has taught me more about AI, data, digital marketing, and strategy development. I've decided after getting experience in an industry (ideally with digital strategies or digital analysis), I'd like to get a Master's in Secondary Teaching, to teach business and English. However, that may change if I find an interesting opportunity.

As for the radio, my mum suggested I try volunteering during the university holidays to keep busy and giving the radio a go. My brother volunteered at a station in Adelaide, which inspired me to give it a shot. Initially, the Introduction to Radio Broadcasting course was nerve-wracking because I didn't know what to expect. However, stepping out of my comfort zone helped me gain knowledge and build confidence. I'm glad I decided to pursue the broadcasting course. Looking forward to:

Sundays 9am-12 pm.

Great work Aaron Lucas and Jesse Ellis from Trending Media Australia. Who knew such a large production company was located on the Peninsula, even making it to a NY Billboard (see Aaron & Jesse pic below).
