News from Community Broadcasting Association of Australia (CBAA)

CBAA has now submitted revised broadcasting codes to the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) for their final review.

Once the broadcasting codes are finalised, CBAA will seek the support of stations for the new Codes to be approved formally by the ACMA.

After approval by the ACMA, stations will have a period of time to support staff and volunteers to understand the changes before they come into effect.

The current Codes will remain in force until the new Codes come into effect. CBAA does not anticipate the new, revised Codes will come into effect until July 1, 2025.

PINE RIVERS SHOW 2024

99.7 Bridge FM had great fun broadcasting live over the 3 days of the Show in August. A huge thank you from management to all our volunteers who generously gave their time at the Show. It was great fun - can't wait for next year's Pine Rivers Show.

Breakfast host, Ken Maxwell with regular listener & winner of a 99.7 Bridge FM family ticket to the show, Jenny Duperouzel.

Jenny kindly paid her prize forward when she saw a “lovely young family” waiting to go into the Show and gifted her ticket to them.

Jenny reports that the family were “super excited and that it made their day”.

Well done, Jenny.
